

THE holiday season was inaugurated yesterday with one of the most delightful children's parties given in many days. The affair was given by Mrs. James E. Jennings in her handsome home on Brigham street and was complimentary to her sister's children, the little people of the Walter Jennings family. The library and dining room were cleared for action and about sixty little people enjoyed a few hours of dancing. An orchestra was stationed in the hall furnishing delightful music, and in the other rooms tables were spread decorated with the reds and greens of the Christmas time. A number of older friends assisted in entertaining the little people.

Miss Florence Grant was the hostess yesterday afternoon at a delightfully informal Kensington given for her cousin, Miss Rhoda Stoddard of Canada. After a few hours spent over the Christmas work the young girls enjoyed a delicious tea spread in the dining room, where the table showed a wealth of Christmas decorations. The guests were the Misses Jean Odell, Kate Groo, June Bantz, Mercy Berkeley, Jessie Home, Laura Bird, Marguerite Donnellan, Stella Clinton, Louise Lamson, Nell Cullen, Ethel Rogers, Druce Fennimore, Nell Fennimore and Mrs. W. C. Druehl.

Miss Alice Wall was the hostess last evening at a very delightful card party given to celebrate her birthday. The guests numbered nearly 100 of her young friends. The rooms were beautifully decorated with roses, carnations and Christmas greens. Besides the game of sixty-three, which was enjoyed, Miss Agatha Berkhoeft delighted the guests with several vocal selections. Mrs. E. A. Wall was assisted in entertaining the young guests by Mrs. Wey, Mrs. Pinkerton, Mrs. Klesick, Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. Keogh, Mrs. Tarbet and Mrs. Crane.

Only two very important affairs are set for the real holiday season so far, the hop at the post on the 29th and the tea to be given by Miss Geddes, Miss Zane and Miss Burke on Christmas day.

Beginning Wednesday, Mrs. Duncan MacVieille will receive her friends informally each Wednesday for the remainder of the winter.

Mrs. Edwin F. Holmes will receive during the season only on alternate Fridays, and will be at home to her friends next Friday from 2 till 6 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Alma Denbeigh Katz will be down from Boise Wednesday and will remain over the holidays with friends in the city.

Mrs. J. E. Bamberger and Mrs. Simon Bamberger will leave some time during the week for New York, where they will spend the holiday season with their children, who are in school there.

Miss Stella Engelman, one of the really pretty school teachers of the city, and L. A. Woz of San Francisco, provided a surprise for their friends when they were quietly married a week ago last Thursday at the home of the bride's parents. The marriage has been kept quiet even from the intimate friends of the young couple, not from any desire to keep it secret, but because of their wishes to spend a quiet honeymoon. The young people are staying at one of the hotels at present and will doubtless not leave for their home in California till early in the new year.

Mrs. George P. Holman entertains at cards next Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. J. S. Farrington entertained the members of the Bonalya Sewing club at her home Thursday afternoon. The club has adjourned till after the holidays and will meet the first Thursday in January at the home of Mrs. Thomas Hodder.

Miss Edythe Hale and Miss Fessie Officer will be home next Sunday from Stanford and will spend the holiday season in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris K. Masters go to New York during the coming week to spend about two months with Judge Alexander Cameron.

Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Siegel are now in Paris and will sail for home next Thursday. They will spend some time in New York before leaving for Salt Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer B. Jones, who have spent the past month on the coast, returned during the week to the city.

Mrs. William H. Dale is home after a visit of two months with her relatives in Kansas City.

Miss Catherine Creary has gone to Fort D. A. Russell, where she will spend the holidays.

Mrs. Salisbury and Miss Stella Salisbury left yesterday on the noon trip for California, whence they will sail for Honolulu.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bamberger will return Friday of this week from their eastern trip, and will shortly be at home at 40 Third East street.

Among the events scheduled for the coming week is the luncheon to be given Wednesday by Mrs. J. L. Franken at the Alta club.

Mrs. James T. Clasby will also entertain at cards preceded by a luncheon next Tuesday.

On Thursday evening Miss Lenore Brown entertained informally at her home. Several beautiful vocal and instrumental selections were rendered and games were indulged in, after which refreshments were served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Seth Brown, Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Thomstorf, Misses Alberta Barton, Eva and Carrie Dunyon, Edie Dahlstead, Anna Foulger, Rene Sheets, Kate Silver, Lillian Farrington, Lydia Willis, Gene Pender, Janet Rodca, H. Flown, F. Kessler, B. Bosworth, J. Reader, Peble, Newland, L. Thostorf, Gertritz, Margaretta, Clarence Renshaw, Baker, McDonald, C. Holman, J. Alechins, Phillips, Reader, Wiggles, Pardie, Roberts, Stewart, Steck, Mann.

Mrs. Laura Van Cott entertained all her sons and daughters at a family dinner last evening in honor of the birthday of her son Waldemar Van Cott.

Mrs. Ray Fish entertained at cards and music last Wednesday. Miss Millicent Williams, Miss Faurister, Mrs. Fish and Mrs. John Reid furnished the music and vocal selections.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Treweek announce the engagement of their daughter, Louise, to Mr. J. Leonard Burch. The marriage will take place at the Treweek home on the evening of Wednesday, Dec. 23.

Miss Hattie Pollard entertained a party of her friends at a box party Thursday evening, following the event with a supper.

A club was organized during the week and the name of "Eta" was adopted. The election of officers was as follows: May Watrous, president; Sarah Bignall, secretary. Twelve members are enrolled and a meeting is held every two weeks at the different homes of the members. A programme is rendered and a most enjoyable time is spent.

Yesterday morning Mr. Isaac Swan and Miss Vendia Holm, from Eureka, were married at the Swedish Lutheran parsonage.

Last night Rev. and Mrs. E. Rydberg gave a reception to members and friends of the Zion Lutheran congregation at the parsonage, 156 South Fourth East street.

The Billie club will give a dancing party next Friday evening at Christensen's.

Joseph Young returned from Rock Springs, Wyo., yesterday, where he had been a few days on business. He and Mrs. Young are to leave the city for Florida and Cuba soon to be gone two or three months.

Mrs. Joseph Young will entertain the Plate club at her home next Saturday afternoon.

A surprise was tendered Mrs. F. A. Charles on Friday evening at the residence of Mrs. John Shea, 183 West Third South by the lady employees of Keith-O'Brien company. The affair was directly in charge of her sister, Mrs. E. A. Shafstall, assisted by Mrs. Shea. Mrs. Charles is shortly to leave for her old home in Michigan and it is hinted that some one awaits her there. Mrs. Charles was the recipient of a beautiful cut glass fruit service and to the touching words of presentation she responded feelingly. It was an event thoroughly enjoyable. The girls were all in costumes. Two of the young ladies appeared as cash boys attired in the regulation suits and caps; two delighted their friends by representing the "Heavenly Twins", two impersonated "Chippie Good Time" and interesting characters they were. One young lady created much merriment as Sis Hopkins, a fifteen-year-old country girl; another was an Indian chief, Bridget just landed; and one of the tall and queenly young ladies was interesting as a little girl in a short frock. Other impersonations were equally clever. Refreshments were enjoyed and it was whispered about the store yesterday that punch galore was served. The male employees are figuring on a similar surprise to be given some evening this week, at which time they will all appear as maidens.

OGDEN.

The annual ball and banquet of the Weber club will be held this year Dec. 23 at Conley's hall. The male employees are figuring on a similar surprise to be given some evening this week, at which time they will all appear as maidens.
